

Student Content Creator - Application Pack 2026/27

Introduction

Trinity Laban is a place where global arts collaborators and creators come together to discover, share, and cultivate inspiration. We are a community driven by creativity, diversity, and innovation.

We're looking for passionate student content creators to help showcase Trinity Laban's creative excellence, share authentic experiences across our digital platforms and place students at the heart of our online storytelling.

Main Responsibilities

- Work with the Brand and Communications team to produce at least 2 high-quality videos per month that showcase life at Trinity Laban and speak to our brand values. You will be responsible for planning, shooting, and editing content in line with Trinity Laban's brand guidelines.*
- Sharing your experiences of life at Trinity Laban to give new and prospective students an insight into what it is like to be a student here, including covering events on and off campus.*
- Attend one termly catch-up meeting with the Marketing team to discuss progress, content ideas, content plans and troubleshoot any issues you might be having.*
- Stay up to date with social media trends and incorporate them creatively while maintaining the institution's tone of voice.*
- Participate in a paid training session to develop digital media skills and understand Trinity Laban's brand guidelines.*
- Taking part in photo shoots for campaign promotion when required.*

Person Specification

Do you enjoy creating video content for social media?

We are looking for students with aspirations to develop their digital and social media skills. We'd love for you to help us reflect Trinity Laban's creative excellence and further establish our position as a pioneering performing arts institution across our social media platforms.

If you are:

- Open to sharing your experiences and curious to find authentic student-centred stories.
- Enthusiastic about acting as a positive ambassador for Trinity Laban.
- Tuned into what prospective students want to know about life at Trinity Laban.
- Up to date with social media and current trends, particularly on TikTok, whilst still speaking to our brand values.
- Comfortable both in front of and behind the camera.
- Confident in video editing, preferably with CapCut.
- Able to work to a brief, meet deadlines, and follow brand guidelines.
- Open to feedback and committed to producing high-quality content.

Then we would love to hear from you!

Frequently Asked Questions

Who can apply?

To apply, you must be a current Trinity Laban student with the right to work in the UK and a National Insurance number.

Can international students apply?

Yes, we welcome applications from all our students. You will need to check that you have the right to work in the UK and adhere to any work limitations which may be set out on any UK visa/right to work documents you have, e.g. the number of hours you are allowed to work.

If you are selected, we will check and make a copy of your original identification/documentation before your first day of work.

Everyone working in the UK needs a National Insurance (NI) number to be paid. If you are a UK citizen, you will automatically have this. If you are an international student, you should apply for an NI number when you apply for this role, so there is no delay in your payments.

(Please note you cannot apply for a National Insurance Number until you are in the UK.)

How much will I be paid?

You will be paid £56.96 per edited video and £28.48 per unedited / minimally edited video, equating to 4 and 2 hours work respectively. This covers planning, recording and editing your content. Therefore, in a typical month, you will produce two pieces of content and receive £85.44, though there will occasionally be opportunities to produce more content and be paid accordingly in any given month.

Salaries are paid on the last working day of each month, direct into bank or building society accounts.

Will I receive training?

To join the team, you will need to attend a paid introductory session where we will go through our brand guidelines and answer any questions you have about the role. This is also an opportunity to meet other student content creators and share ideas for the upcoming year.

Training will take place in October, date TBC.

How will I be supported?

We will always talk through projects with you, making sure you are confident and have everything you need to create high-quality content. We are always happy to help if you want to discuss anything or to access technical support.

As part of this role, you will get an insight into working directly with Brand and Communications; a busy creative team who look after Trinity Laban's brand reputation whilst encouraging the growth of our global community. If marketing is something you are interested in pursuing, please feel free to reach out at any point for a conversation.

Once you have finished working as a Student Content Creator, we will be happy to provide you with a reference.
